

Artifacts from the Mary and Eliza Freeman Houses

Yellow Ware Mixing Bowl, c. 1840s,
Yellow-colored clay,
Recovered by Historic Deconstruction
Apprentices and GBCE/The Green Team,
Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History
and Community, Bridgeport, CT, 2012.

Beer Bottle, stoneware; *Amber Whiskey
Bottle*, glass, turned in mold; Beer Bottle with String, stoneware, c. 1840s.

Recovered by Historic Deconstruction
Apprentices and GBCE/The Green Team,
Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History
and Community, Bridgeport, CT, 2012.

Scissors, metal and Hand-made Shell Buttons (likely locally produced), c. late 1850s. Recovered by Historic Deconstruction Apprentices and GBCE/The Green Team, Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History and Community, Bridgeport, CT, 2012.

Assorted Shells. Recovered by Historic Deconstruction Apprentices and GBCE/The Green Team, Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History and Community, Bridgeport, CT, 2012.

Key, metal and Pipe, wood of African origin. Recovered by Historic Deconstruction Apprentices and GBCE/The Green Team, Mary and Eliza Freeman Center for History and Community, Bridgeport, CT, 2012.